FIVE MUSEUMS FOR THE GAMES A PUZZLE ADVENTURE

AT THE TUILERIES GARDEN - MUSÉE DU LOUVRE

YOUR MISSION

Five museums need you for a special mission!

In preparation for the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, the Centre Pompidou, the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the Musée de l'Orangerie and the Musée du Quai Branly – Jacques Chirac have been studying a manuscript written by the founder of the modern Games, Pierre de Coubertin. The document contains five secret sentences. One thing is certain: each sentence is connected to a museum and derives its meaning from a strong tie between sport and culture.

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to help each museum find the meaning of its secret sentence with the help of this sleuthing team:

ADAM

LÉONARD

WILLIAM

CÉLESTE

MARTINE

MÉLODIE

OMER &
MEG

Each of them thinks they have deciphered the manuscript. But who has the correct answer?

Find out by completing seven challenges based on artworks or garden features at each museum. Solve each puzzle to eliminate a team member and discover who has the correct answer.

The most determined players could be rewarded in a prize draw.

Keep up the pace

The fun isn't over! Complete the puzzle adventures at the four other museums to increase your chance of winning in the draw! Use the five secret sentences to write a final message on the puzzle passport.

Fun fact

The three Olympic values are friendship, respect and excellence. The four values added by the Paralympic movement are courage, determination, inspiration and equality. These values will help you in your mission!

GAME RULES

Welcome to the Tuileries Garden!

This French garden par excellence is a part of the Musée du Louvre.

The location of each challenge in your adventure is indicated by a flower, found on the map on page 4.

TO SOLVE THE PUZZLES, YOU WILL NEED TO:

- ☒ be in front of the artworks or garden features
- ☒ be observant
- ☒ have a pencil
- ☐ don't walk on the lawn
- ☐ don't skate or cycle
- ☐ don't pick any flowers

Set off to find them in whatever order you like! Use each correct answer to eliminate the secret sentence of a sleuth at the end of the booklet.
Watch out! One of the sleuths will be eliminated twice.

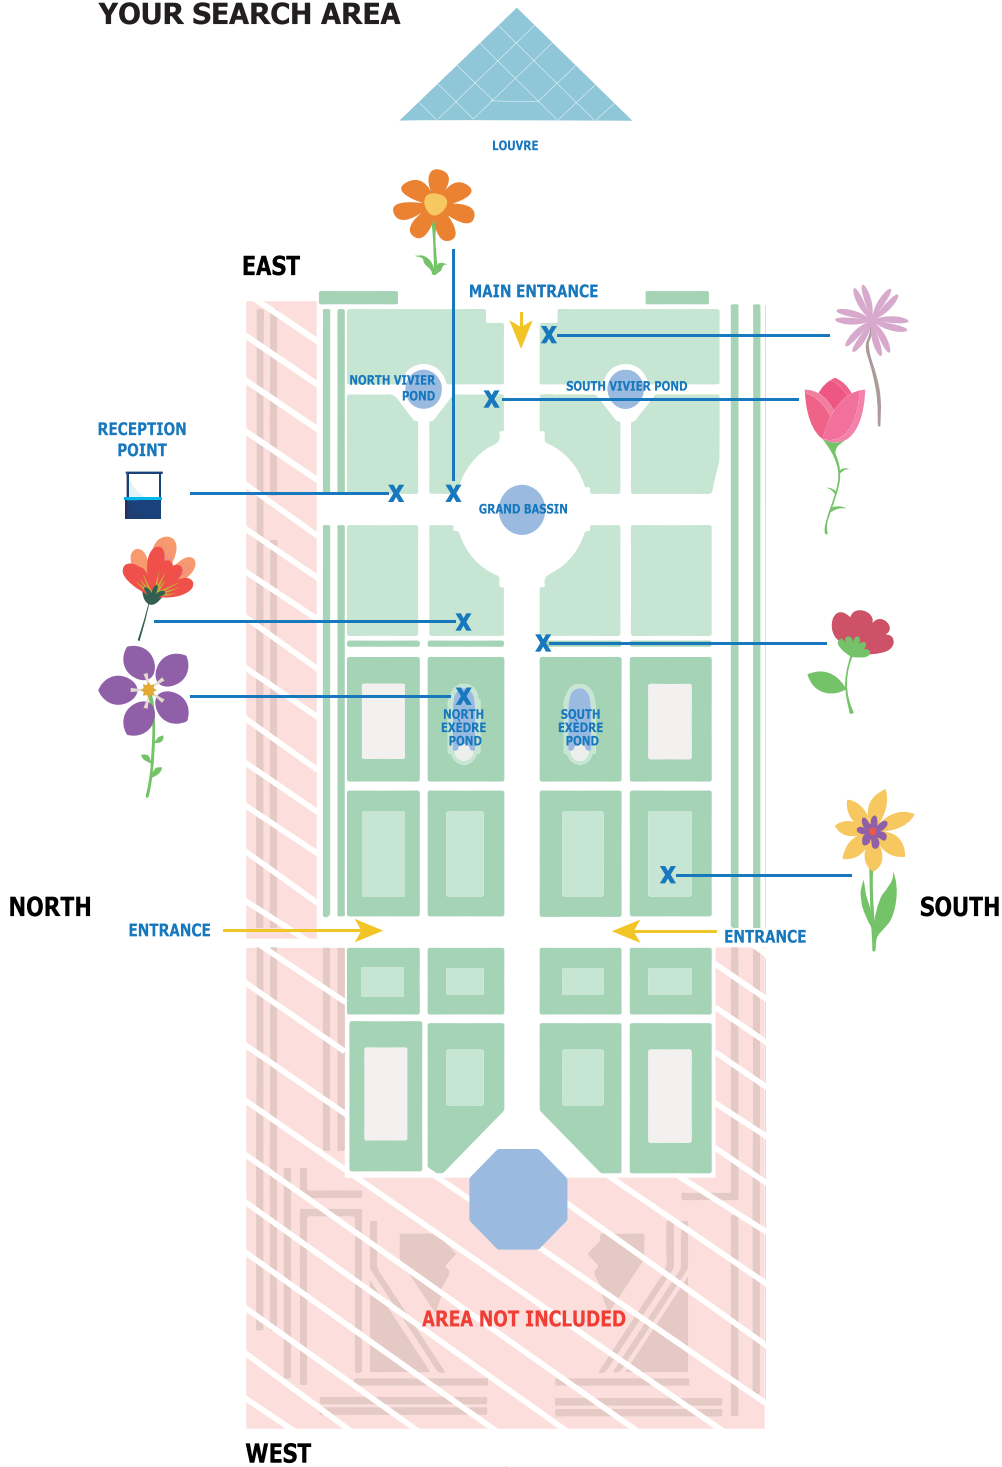

The last sleuth left after completing the seven challenges has the correct answer.

To enter the draw, write the number of the correct secret sentence on your coupon and deposit it in the ballot box located at the reception point indicated on the map.
Deadline: 2 June. Good luck!

SLEUTHING TIP

Take the time to read the explanatory labels on the garden works, which are full of valuable information for your investigation!

YOUR SEARCH AREA

YOUR CHALLENGE: Branch out

This point of interest is _____

Its name is _____

The Tuileries Garden is a green haven in the heart of Paris, guarded by over 3,000 inspired trees. Silent but attentive, nothing gets past them.

Compare the drawings below with the tree in front of you. A little hint: the large round pool should be at your back. Once you've identified the right tree, eliminate the sleuth at its base on the last page - he or she hasn't found the right secret sentence.

The number or sleuth to eliminate:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Face the heavyweight Hercules

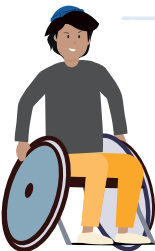

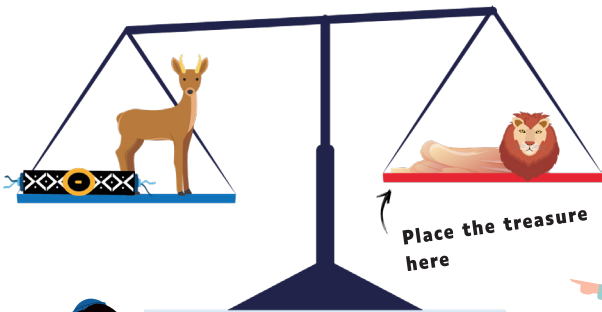

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Hercules holds a precious treasure in his hand and wants to place it on the scale to the right.
Walk around the statue to see what it is!
Study the objects and their weights to determine how the scales will tip.
Found the answer?
Eliminate the sleuth next to the heavier scale to get closer to your goal!

Info corner

Have you heard of the twelve labours of Hercules? One of them is hiding in the Louvre. Find Hercules fighting the Hydra in the Denon wing of the museum, Level 0, room 403!

YOUR CHALLENGE: Connect the roots

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Meg is certain: these roots hide a clue that will help you eliminate one of the team's sleuths.

Study the sign in front of the work – its name will help you guess which letters you need for your challenge!

One sleuth's name contains all these letters. This sleuth did not find the right secret sentence.

Info corner

Look at this uprooted oak tree. It looks dead, but a new tree has sprung from each of its five branches! What a lovely message of hope.

Found the answer?
Remove that sleuth from the race to continue the adventure!

The number or sleuth to eliminate:

YOUR CHALLENGE: Become a blossoming supersleuth

This point of interest is _____

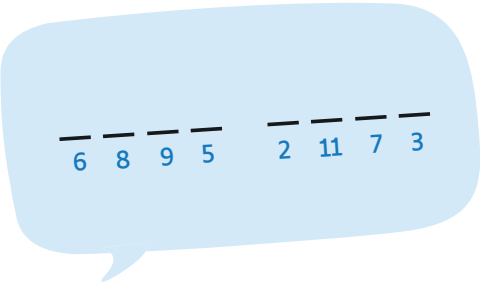

Its name is _____

If your map skills are medal worthy, you should now be standing before a potted plant. The plant's 12-letter name appears on the sign. Start by eliminating the first and last letters of this name. Next, eliminate the fourth and tenth letters as well.

X			X							X	X
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12

Rearrange the remaining letters in the correct order to learn which sleuth is wrong and eliminate their secret sentence at the end of the booklet.

Using the decoded message, eliminate the sleuth who's not telling the truth!

The number or sleuth to eliminate: _____

YOUR CHALLENGE: Find your way out of the labyrinth

Title of the work _____

Artist's name _____

Both paths out of the labyrinth lead you to a sleuth who thinks they have the correct sentence...

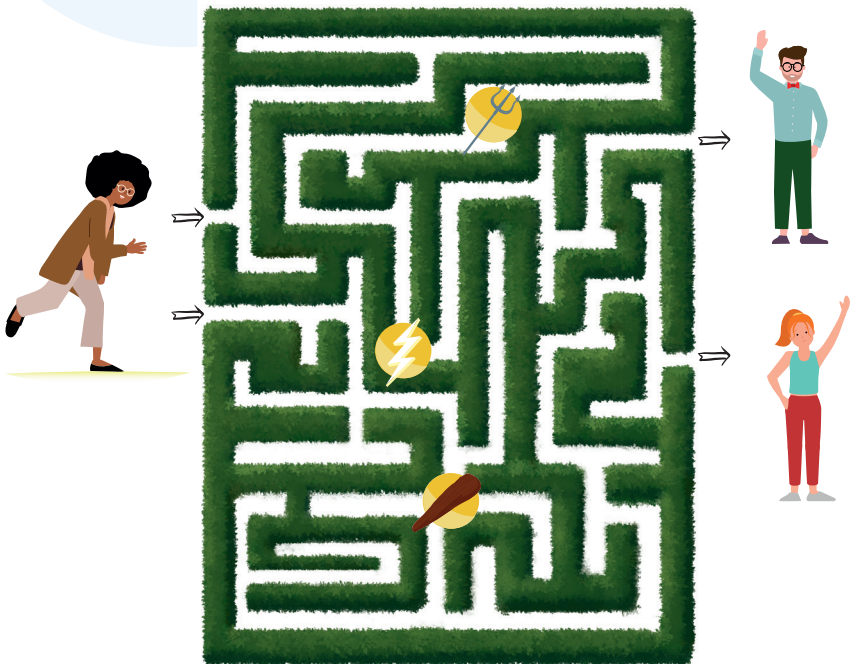

Which should you eliminate?

Study the sculpture carefully: Theseus holds the weapon found on the path to the sleuth you must eliminate.

Don't get lost!

Info corner

Find Theseus fighting the Minotaur in the Richelieu wing of the Louvre, Level -1, Cour Puget, room 105!
