WELCOME TO THE LOUVRE

The origin of the Louvre dates back to the 1200s. Once a royal residence, it became a museum in 1793 during the French Revolution and is now home to artworks dating from the 7th millennium BC to the 1850s. The collections are displayed on five levels, in three interconnecting wings named after three prominent figures from French history: Sully (1559–1641), chief minister of King Henri IV, Richelieu (1585–1642), chief minister of King Louis XIII, and Denon (1747–1825), first director of the Musée du Louvre.

ALSO AT THE LOUVRE...

The Carrousel and Tuileries Gardens
The Carrousel Garden is laid out around the triumphal arch of Napoleon I, completed in 1808. To the west is the Tuileries Garden, created in 1564 by Queen Catherine de' Medici, redesigned a century later by André Le Nôtre and rearranged several times since. This masterpiece of garden design features beautiful flower beds, pools and groves fanning out from the Grande Allée with its view towards the Champs-Élysées. The two gardens are open-air sculpture museums.

The Musée National Eugène-Delacroix
